

STUDENT PERSPECTIVES ON INTERNATIONALIZATION

The Student Satisfaction Survey

HUNGARIAN HIGHER EDUCATION IN NUMBERS (2019/2020)

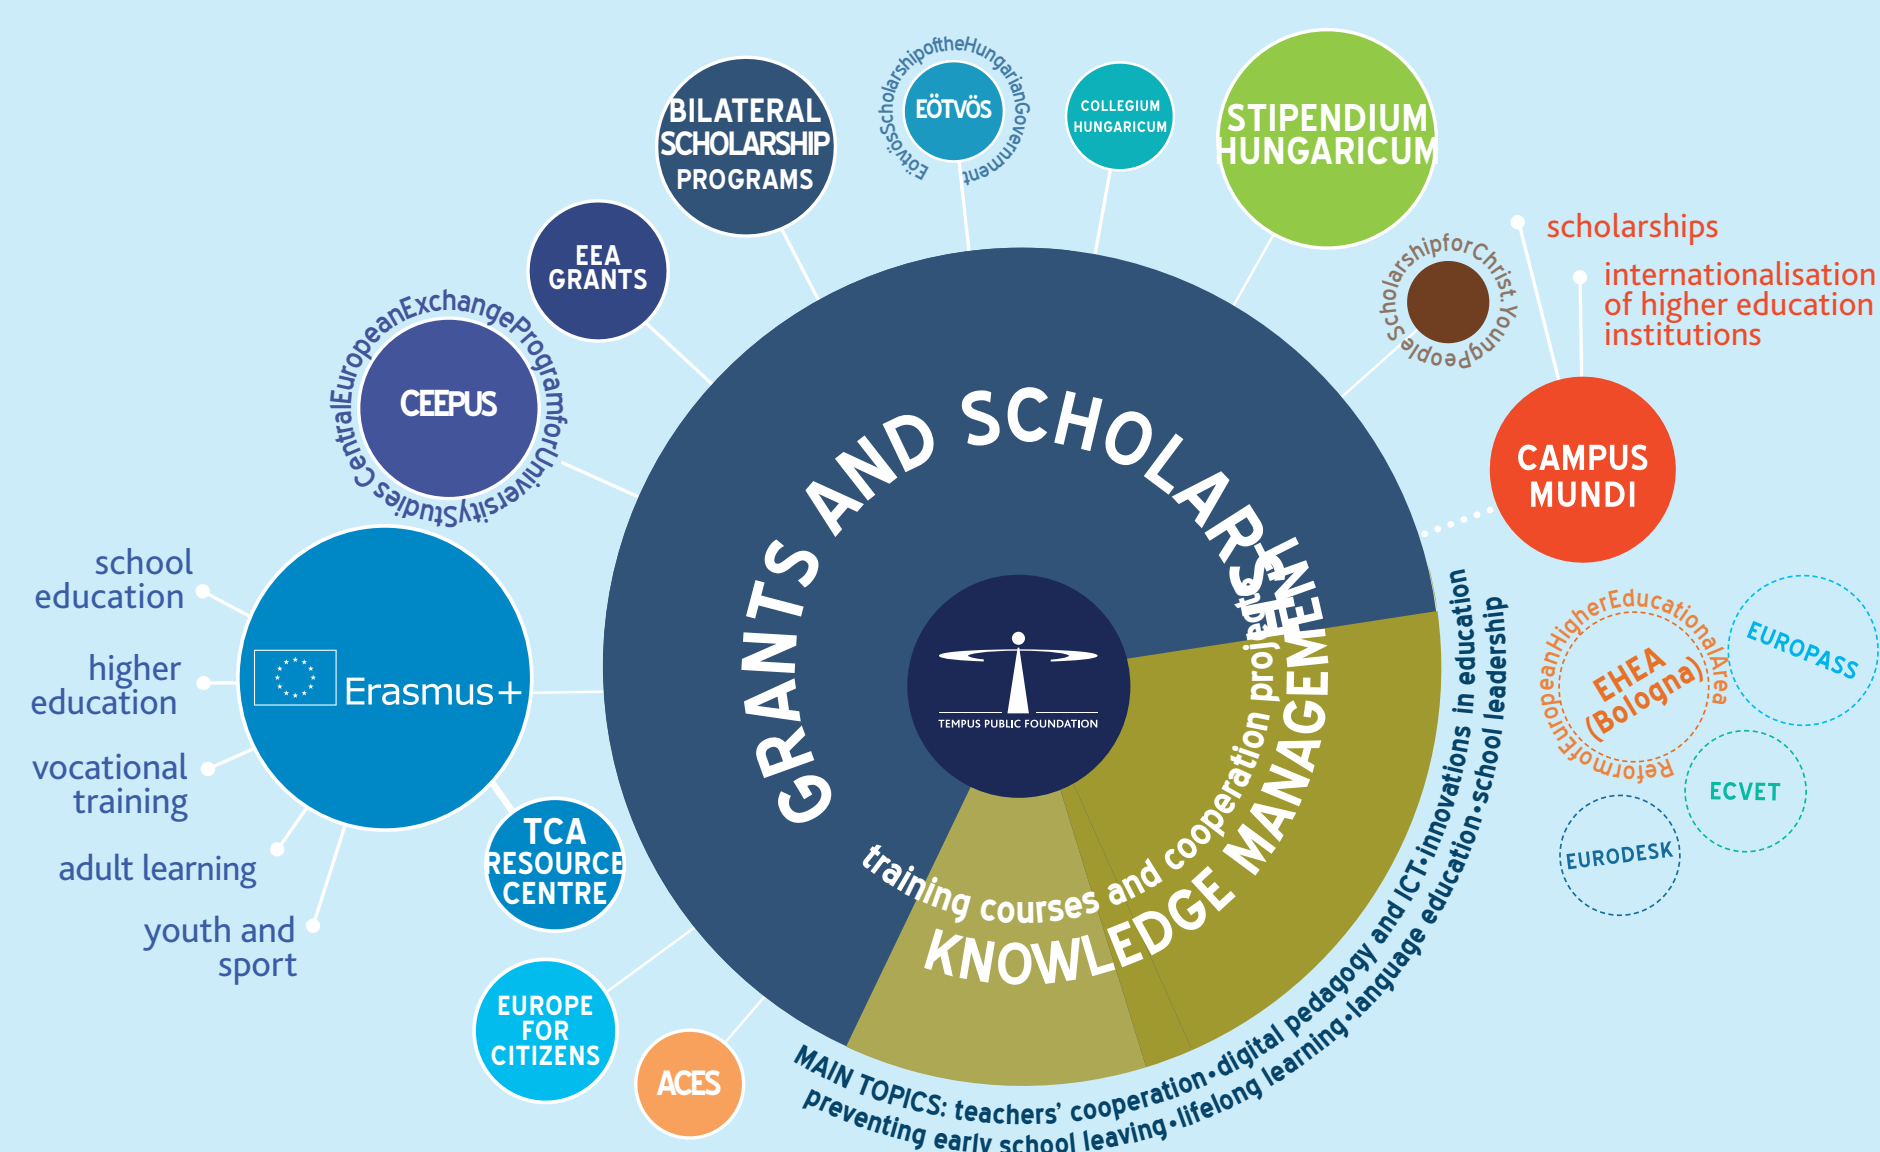

STUDENT SATISFACTION SURVEY

The feedback of the students is an important indicator of the quality of the Stipendium Hungaricum (SH) program. On a yearly basis, students report their opinion about the priority areas related to the implementation of the program.

- WHEN? once a year, in the summer, since 2016
- WHO? SH scholarship holders (mandatory)
other international students (optional)
- HOW MANY? in 2019, 6733 students completed the form
- HOW? through an online platform
- ABOUT WHAT? satisfaction with the education (university, study program)
student services provided by the universities life in Hungary, Hungarian language skills future plans
the students' social and educational background
- WHY? to improve services to enhance internationalization

TEMPUS PUBLIC FOUNDATION'S ACTIVITIES

TEMPUS PUBLIC FOUNDATION (TPF) is a non-profit organization established in 1996 by the Hungarian Government, with the task of managing international cooperation programs and special projects in the field of education, training and EU-related issues. TPF is the national Erasmus+ agency, and coordinates scholarship programs such as CAMPUS MUNDI for outbound students and the STIPENDIUM HUNGARICUM (SH) program for inbound students.

SATISFACTION WITH FACTORS RELATED TO CAMPUS LIFE

HOW TO DISSEMINATE THE RESEARCH RESULTS?

MINISTRIES

- findings are included in the (semi-)annual reports submitted to the ministries
- fine-tuning of the program, identifying core issues that need to be tackled on program level

TEMPUS PUBLIC FOUNDATION

- key element in determining the areas that need future improvement, fine-tuning of the program on an operational level
- the level of satisfaction is an evaluation criteria when the universities (re)apply for participation in the SH program

UNIVERSITIES

- tailor-made feedback for the universities, detailed summary of survey outcomes
- utilisation of these findings for quality assurance purposes including course accreditation

NATIONAL UNION OF STUDENTS AND OTHER INTERMEDIATE ORGANIZATIONS

- essential feedback for various initiatives (e.g. the mentor system of the National Union of Students in Hungary)

RECOMMENDATIONS AND DEVELOPMENTS

COMMUNICATION

- emphasizing the main decision factors in choosing Hungary in communication materials
- taking into account regional differences in order to reach certain target groups
- intensive use of scholarship portals

INTEGRATION

- basic Hungarian language and culture lessons
- integrated education, mixed classrooms
- more academic and extracurricular programs with Hungarian students

INFRASTRUCTURE, SERVICES

- need for a more extended safety net to support the students' well-being

ALUMNI

- expansion of the alumni network
- alumni's importance in terms of recruitment

ORIENTATION

- before departure, more informative online presence of the HEIs: hands-on approach to helping incoming students with admission and administrative issues; step by step to-do guides
- involvement of mentor student and partners (such as diplomatic missions) before arrival
- upon arrival, joint orientation programs with Hungarian students

EXAMPLES OF GOOD PRACTICE:

- mandatory Hungarian language and culture courses for all SH scholarship holders
- the mentor system is a program requirement for all HEIs
- cross-institutional mentor program of the National Union of Students in Hungary: 2-day training for selected mentors, 300 mentor in 2018 & 400 in 2019, 5-7 students/mentor
- cooperation of Hungarian and international students' unions, joint social gatherings
- special attention on intercultural aspects, regular intercultural trainings by professionals

EXAMPLES OF GOOD PRACTICE:

- legal aid clinics
- career counselling
- institutional psychological support in English
- international students' unions
- welcome events

EXAMPLES OF GOOD PRACTICE:

- ca. 4000 alumni registered on the Alumni Hungary Network webpage, the alumni volunteers actively assist student recruitment, local alumni chapters, etc.
- Graduate Career Tracking of International Students
